CVM5401/CVM5402 Accounting for Engineers

Mini Project 02

Q1) Sustainability concerns are increasingly central to the business strategy of any company due to environmental pressures, social expectations, and long-term resource constraints. Companies are expected to demonstrate accountability not only for financial outcomes but also for their environmental and social impacts.

Select a Sri Lankan Manufacturing Public Limited Company (PLC) and prepare a report that:

- 1. Reviews the company's latest Annual Report to identify its sustainability-related initiatives, including environmental, social, and governance programmes.
- 2. Evaluates the impact of the company's sustainability initiatives on its overall operations, costs, competitive position in the market, and brand reputation.
- 3. Provides practical recommendations to improve the company's sustainability performance and the effectiveness of its initiatives.
